

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA/PHI BETA LAMBDA, INC.
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE CHAPTER BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the organization shall be the South Carolina Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The two purposes of this organization are:

1. To promote the purposes of the National Organization as stated in its constitution in Article II, with which the Constitution of the South Carolina Chapter is in accord.
2. To encourage and promote local chapters in recognized schools teaching Business Education in the state of South Carolina.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in this organization shall consist of the local chapters in the schools/centers of South Carolina which have been chartered by the National Organization known as the Future Business Leaders of America.

Section 2. State and local chapters shall be open for membership to all students participating in any business program.

Section 3. The chapter shall be a member of the National Organization of FBLA/PBL, Inc.

Section 4. There shall be these classes of membership:

Active members shall be secondary students who become members while enrolled in business and/or business-related fields, who accept the purpose of FBLA, subscribe to its creed, demonstrate willingness to contribute to good school-community relations, and possess qualities for employment. Active members shall pay dues as established by FBLA and may participate in national events, in accordance with the guidelines of the National Awards Program, serve as voting delegates to the National Leadership Conference, hold national office, and otherwise represent their state or local chapters as approved by their respective state or local advisers.

Professional members shall be persons associated with or participating in the professional development of FBLA as approved by state chapters. Such members may include local and state advisers, Business Education teachers, business teacher educators, state supervisors and consultants of Business Education, employers or supervisors of cooperative work-training students, advisory council members, businesspersons, and other persons contributing to the growth and development of FBLA. Professional members shall pay dues as established by FBLA, but they shall not participate in events, serve as voting delegates, or hold office.

Honorary life members may be elected to a state or local chapter by a majority vote. They shall be persons who are assisting in the advancement of Business Education and/or who are rendering outstanding service to FBLA/PBL, Inc. Honorary life members shall not vote or hold office and shall not be required to pay dues.

National honorary life members may be recommended by the membership and shall be accepted upon approval by the Board of Directors of FBLA/PBL, Inc. They shall be persons making significant contributions to the field of Business Education and/or to the growth and development of FBLA. National honorary life members shall not vote or hold office and shall not be required to pay dues.

ARTICLE IV. ORGANIZATION

Section 1. The Future Business Leaders of America is the National Organization for students in Business Education of which the South Carolina Chapter is a member.

Section 2. Active chapters of the Future Business Leaders of America shall be chartered only in recognized secondary schools/centers (7-12) where systematic instruction in business subjects is offered.

Section 3. The policy-making body of this organization shall be jointly vested in the State Executive Council and the Business Education Staff.

Section 4. The administration of FBLA shall be vested in the State Chairperson/Adviser and Executive Secretary if applicable.

Section 5. There shall be a State Executive Council which shall perform duties as prescribed by these bylaws.

ARTICLE V. DUES AND FINANCES

Section 1. The membership year shall be July 1 through June 30.

Section 2. The State Chairperson/Adviser and Executive Secretary, if applicable, shall administer and control all FBLA finances and shall submit an annual financial statement which shall be published annually.

Section 3. The state dues will be regulated at the discretion of the State Executive Council. The national dues will be regulated at the discretion of the National Executive Council.
